Minot Area Chamber of Commerce and Minot Area Development Corporation to merge

The Minot Area Chamber of Commerce and Minot Area Development Corporation (MADC) will merge the two organizations into one, effective Jan. 1, 2021. Ballots were mailed out earlier this month and overwhelmingly came back in support of the merger with 94% of the Chamber member votes and 95% of MADC investor votes received in favor of the merger.

"I am excited for what the merger means to our region. I have spent over a year working for both organizations and see a lot of synergies and opportunities for the two organizations to become one. We can combine resources and focus our efforts on a fresh start to serving the business community as one focused organization," said L. John MacMartin, Minot Area Chamber of Commerce president and MADC interim president/CEO.

Three key factors led to the initial discussion and are the basis for the question of: Why is a merger best for the community, organizations and the member/investors who support both organizations?

1. International Economic Development Council (IEDC) economic recovery and resiliency strategies identification of the need for organizations to collaborate and develop One Brand

2. Change in leadership at MADC in the fall of 2019
3. Desire to serve members and investors from the business community more efficiently

Randy Hauck, MADC board chair shared, "We are in an environment where we all are looking for ways to work as effectively and efficiently as possible. This past year as chair of MADC, we have shared two positions with the chamber team which has worked well. The organizations are already housed in one building and being able to look for further efficiencies will serve the members/investors well. I've had the opportunity to chair both boards and see the merger as a win for our region."

Jeff McElwain, Minot Area Chamber of Commerce board chair added, "The Minot Area Chamber of Commerce board has spent the last year working together with the MADC board to evaluate our current positions and reach out to other communities who have initiated similar mergers to the benefit of their members and investors. It is clear to me this is the right move for our two entities to be more effective and efficient for the Minot area.”

The mission will continue to focus on promoting business, leadership and growth for the Minot area while facilitating business attraction, expansion, retention, and advocacy to diversify and strengthen the Minot area. There are opportunities with the merger to review current community needs and align the organizations focus to address these needs. The board of directors for both organizations have been working closely this year to do a careful analysis of the merger with equal representation from both groups. The organization will be structured so that employees specialize in various roles, while remaining flexible to help in any role as needed.

The goal is for the new organization to do more for the community with the same amount of revenue that is currently collected among the two organizations now. There may be slight differences in dues due to a new tiered investment structure, but in most cases, members will pay the same as what they are now to both groups. There are many opportunities to be involved from participating in one of the many committees to nominations to serve on the board of directors. The combined organization will allow members to go to one board rather than two to provide input.

Next steps will be delivery of documentation for the plan of merger to the ND Secretary of State and Attorney General. The new 14-member board of directors will be seated January 1, 2021. The board includes a set designated position for both the City of Minot and Ward County. Other board members will serve staggered terms and represent a broad sector of the Minot area business community.

Getting North Dakota back in business

Federal Stimulus Package & SBA Update

NDSBDC is monitoring the new federal stimulus package which includes:

- Stimulus checks
- Unemployment assistance
- Small business loans (re-open the PPP)

NDSBDC has scheduled a webinar with staff from the North Dakota SBA District Office to give us an update. Register now and plan to attend on January 14 at 3 p.m.

Upcoming Webinars, Events & Offers

These are some upcoming events and learning opportunities:

- 4R Project: Tax credits under the ERC and FFCRA - Jan. 5
- Business Builders Workshop: Budgeting for Success - Jan. 12
- 4R Project: SBA Update on the new Stimulus Package - Jan. 14
- Business Builders Workshop - The Importance of Having a BAIL Team - Feb. 9
- SBA's Business Smart Toolkit - More details

Recordings of previous sessions from our network and others, including social media, small business legal structure, cybersecurity, PPP forgiveness application, and more, are all available on the website. Is there a topic you'd like covered? Let them know!

Legislative Session & Support

NDSBDC is required to match those dollars with state and local funds. A piece of that match funding comes from the state through the Department of Commerce budget. A few things to note for the upcoming session:

- The governor's proposed budget includes a significant reduction in funds allocated for the ND SBDC program. This would also reduce the federal dollars accepted for the North Dakota program.
- This means the services and support provided to clients like you would be impacted in all areas of the state.
- We have the opportunity to share information about our network, our successes, and our impact, BUT, the most powerful information is a personal story from individuals like you.

We hope that you would consider taking five minutes to write an email or letter to your state legislator to thank them for the state's vital match funding while sharing your story. The more personal the note, the better the message is received. Not sure who all of the legislators are for your district? Here is the link to look them up!

City of Minot offers rapid COVID-19 tests

Minot has become the next North Dakota community to offer rapid COVID-19 testing to the public. The City of Minot is partnering with the State of North Dakota and the North Dakota National Guard to offer BinaxNOW Rapid Antigen screening to the general public, which began Monday, Dec. 28.

Tests are self-administered with the assistance of the Minot Fire Department and other City of Minot staff and offer results in approximately 15 minutes. Testing is at Minot's Fire Station #1, 2111 10th St SW, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sundays.

"We're glad we can be a community to offer rapid tests following what was likely an active holiday weekend," said Minot Mayor Shaun Sipma. "Anything we can do locally to help track and monitor any spread quickly will hopefully save lives and livelihoods by identifying asymptomatic individuals."

Due to the unknown daily demand and to save time for anyone taking the BinaxNOW tests, recipients should pre-register before arriving at the test site. Registration can be completed online at <https://testreg.nd.gov/>

Traffic control will be positioned at the testing site as well. All motor vehicles should come from the west on 20th Avenue before turning onto 10th street. This will help to avoid any potential traffic jams at that intersection. Rapid test recipients will be required to follow the signage to drive into Fire Station #1.

Bismarck and Fargo were the first communities to offer widespread rapid testing.

For additional information contact the Public Information Office at 857-4727 or by email at pio@minotnd.org.

City of Minot named one of "Best Places to Visit in ND"

It also features other communities including Lisbon, Grand Forks and Medora. Read the full article at Trips to Discover.

Community members can connect with military community through MAFB Adopt-an-Airman program

Adopt-an-Airman is a program that affords our airmen the opportunity to link up with local families in the surrounding areas to form lasting bonds, new friendships, and build support networks with the local community and outside the normal military environment. The Minot Area Chamber/EDC Military Affairs Committee is partnering with Minot Air Force Base to support this program and provide volunteers.

For a lot of airmen, this is the first time they've been away from their friends and family. To help ease the transition, families in the local community open their homes, and are friends and mentors to our airmen. These families provide our airmen with a caring environment and a sense of belonging that could potentially build relationships that last a lifetime. Host families are encouraged to treat you as a member of the family, not simply as a guest. All host families are not alike, so your experience will probably differ from the experiences of others. Only local civilians of high caliber are eligible to become host families.

Adopt-an-Airman will attempt to match you with a host family who shares the same basic interests and characteristics; such as sports, hobbies, religion, and other activities with which they identify.

For more information, contact Carla Dolan at the Minot Area Chamber/EDC at 857-8205.

Annual Sportsmen's Feed Postponed

The January 24 AFC/NFC playoffs will be a bit different this year for members of the Military Affairs Committee. This year, the annual Sportsmen's Feed, won't take place due to the pandemic. Despite that fact, the group is working on another get together to take its place. Stay tuned for details!

Businesses invited to become Giving Hearts participants

Giving Hearts Day is a 24-hour event for charities in North Dakota, and northwest Minnesota held annually on the second Thursday of February. It has helped participating charities raise more than $90 million since its founding and last year alone had nearly 35,000 givers.

Giving Hearts Day is more than a day, though. Over a decade and a half, it's grown into a movement that's igniting purpose, connectedness, generosity, and kindness throughout our region and beyond. Giving Hearts Day has exploded into a growing army of people connecting with causes bigger than themselves, uniting people of all backgrounds, and spreading kindness to help others.

Giving Hearts Day wouldn't be where it is at today without our generous, supportive, and creative Giving Hearts Businesses!

We are continually amazed at our business community creating healthy, purpose-driven cultures that do so much good for their employees and our communities.

Visit www.givingheartsday.org/partners/businesses/ to learn more and get started! From the bottom of our hearts – THANK YOU for being part of this generosity movement.

Minot Police Department participates in Cops and Kids holiday event

The North Dakota Fraternal Order of Police Souris Valley Regional Lodge #7, partnering with the Minot Police Department, participated in the annual "Cops and Kids" holiday event Sunday, Dec. 20. Historically the Minot area "Cops and Kids" event consisted of pairing pre-selected children with area law enforcement officers for a day of shopping for holiday presents, with funds privately donated by local businesses and individuals. This year however, with the restrictions on public gatherings presented by the coronavirus pandemic, Lodge #7 shifted gears and conducted curbside pick-ups of pre-ordered toys and other merchandise at the Minot Police Department. The orders were compiled from wish lists returned to the Lodge by the children selected to participate. Participants are nominated and selected by area schools and social service organizations.

Arts Crossing announces new CD release of Constellations: A Chamber Opera, composed by Maestro Amaya

Arts Crossing announces the CD world release of Maestro Efraín Amaya's chamber opera: "Constellations" with Albany Records Label (TROY1846), Albany, NY. Amaya is the music director and conductor to the Minot Symphony Orchestra and co-director to the Western Plains Opera as well as an assistant professor at Minot State University.

"Constellations" was created with a story and libretto by Susana Amundaraín. It was inspired by the work and life of renowned Spanish artist Joan Miró, just before the onset of World War II, in the coasts of Normandy. The project started as a collaborative creative work between Amaya and Amundaraín during an Artist Residency summer at Yaddo, NY.

In Maestro Amaya's words: "I'm so excited to culminate this project with the launching of this CD. Constellations is a piece very close to my heart, perhaps because among other things, it highlights the power of art to elevate our souls in the midst of darkness and conflict. I am very thankful to all that made this possible, both the premiere performances and the production of this CD. It took the support of family, friends, and a few grants. I'm truly happy that we are able to leave testimony of this work's world premiere with this recording."

The live performances with the Arts Crossing Chamber Orchestra, under the baton of Maestro Amaya, took place in Philadelphia in December of 2015, in the Neighborhood House, Old City. A master recording was made out of these performances, and it's now available to all audiences through www.albanyrecords.com.

The CD production was possible in part through the sponsorship of Minot State University and the generous support of private donors.

Arts Crossing is a non-profit organization and its objective is to be an experimental and experiential space for the creation of interdisciplinary works of art. It embraces all the arts: music in its various forms, visual arts, theatrical arts, dance, writing, film, and derivatives of those. For more information, please visit www.artscrossing.org.

The KLJ Solutions Holding Co. Board of Directors has announced the appointment of interim Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Barry Schuchard, effective Jan. 1, 2021. The appointment follows the resignation of KLJ Engineering LLC (KLJ) CEO, Dean Anagnost effective Dec. 31, 2020.

Schuchard has been with the company since 1983 and served in multiple project-related and leadership roles over the years, including chief production officer for a number of years and most recently as the

Anne Carlsen begins COVID-19 vaccine distribution

Anne Carlsen received its first shipment of COVID-19 vaccine and started vaccinating its frontline caregivers on Dec. 23, 2020.

Providing staff and eligible persons served with effective COVID-19 vaccines represents the most important public health strategy to control the pandemic. A multidisciplinary team at Anne Carlsen, working with State Department of Health officials, made arrangements to receive the shipment, ensure effective vaccine storage and is planning a series of vaccination clinics.

Initial supplies of the vaccine are limited and are being prioritized based on guidance from the CDC and state authorities, which has recommended vaccinating front line healthcare workers first.

“We want our clients to continue to celebrate in every possible way. And celebrating is more than just a meal. It’s the sights, the sounds, the smell and finally the taste that makes the experience complete.” says senior event producer Carl Clemetson. “We want everyone, regardless of their culinary background, to be able to do this so the instructions are written so anyone can make a gourmet dinner for two. And yes, we even include the candle needed for that date night you wanted to do but were unsure of. Our launch resulted in the sell-out of the first day of deliveries. Delivery days are Monday, Wednesday and Friday every week. Each box contains a dinner for two and includes three steak options, one chicken option and three fish options. Simply select your two entree options and we handle the rest for you. Each box is a flat $85/box plus sales tax and includes your delivery. For those wanting an upgraded experience, filet mignon is available for $115/box.
